Ṣalawāt Nūrānīyyah / Ṣalawāt Badawī Kubrā

Allāh ﷻ said in the Holy Qur'an:

إِنَّ اللَّهَ وَمَلَائِكَتَهُ يُصَلُّونَ عَلَى النَّبِيِّ يَا أَيُّهَا الَّذِينَ آمَنُوا صَلُّوا عَلَيْهِ وَسَلِّمُوا تَسْلِيمًا

Allāh and His angels send blessings on the Prophet: O ye that believe! Send ye blessings on him, and salute him with all respect. (al-Aḥzāb, 33:56)

In composing their own odes of praise on the Prophet ﷺ awliyāullāh have been inspired directly from the heart of Sayyidina Muhammad ﷺ or by seeing a vision or dream in which he informed them of the value of a particular praise or recitation.

In the case of this particular du'ā, which was composed by Sayyidina Aḥmad al-Badawī, it is related in Talkhīs al-ma'ārif fī targhīb Muḥammad 'Ārif by Ḥasan ibn Muḥammad Qaḥḥī, that the walī Muhammad Talmaysānī recited Dalā'ilu 'l-Khayrāt 100,000 times. After completing 100,000 recitation the Prophet ﷺ came to him in a dream and said to him, "If you read the recitation of Ahmad al-Badawi it would be as if you read Dalā'ilu 'l-Khayrāt 800,000 times."

Here is that ṣalawāt, known as Ṣalawāt Nūrānīyyah or Ṣalawāt Badawī Kubrā.
